FIFTEEN CENTS

THE OLD DEPOT, LOCATED just north of the street bearing its name, will soon be only a memory to Antioch residents. The Soo Line railroad took out a wrecking permit last Thursday for the building burned earlier this year. In their heyday, the Antioch-Chicago commuter runs were extremely popular.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK

As in past years, the Antioch News will not be published during the week between Christmas and New Year's.

We'll be on the newsstands again Tuesday night, Jan. 4, and in your homes (thanks to the post office) on Wednesday, Jan. 5.

They still haven't invented the words that can express the gratitude we have for the subscribers and advertisers who have helped us enjoy a healthy and steady growth. Their support is helping to keep the Antioch News alive, and we like to think this is very important to the community.

The only way we can thank you, at the present, is to rededicate ourselves as we look forward to 1977.

Next year we will make this newspaper even more interesting and informative than it is now. And for our advertisers we will continue to reach more and more readers.

As Shakespeare used to say: "What's past is prologue."

In other words: "You ain't seen nothin' yet."

Thanks again, and a very Merry Christmas to you all.

Thrift Shop Uncertain

The Antioch Mental Health Association has no plans to date to reopen their thrift shop, located on the southwest corner of Main and Lake streets.

An early morning fire Dec. 14 destroyed nearly all shop merchandise. Association personnel believe the blaze was started by a burglar because money and jewelry were missing. "We're hoping to re-

Christmas in Days Gone By Ever wonder how Antioch's Christmas celebrations have changed over the years?

Local residents can tell us much about the trends and traditions of the holidays.

A COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE, such as the one in front of the village hall, is not new to Antioch. Robert Wilton Sr. recalls that the northwest corner of Main and Lake streets was the usual spot for the "tannenbaum."

And as far back as the first world war, a Christmas tree graced the interior of the Methodist church.

SHOPPERS TODAY ARE TREATED to holiday music via speakers provided by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Yesteryear's counterpart? Groups of carolers strolling the downtown business districts, says librarian Betty Lu Williams.

Miss Williams also fondly remembers the ever-popular sleigh rides. Among the starting points for the rides was Herman's farm on North Ave.

ANTIOCH GRADE SCHOOL graduates of a "few" years ago certainly will remember the treat that awaited them every Monday at Reeves Drug Store.

McDonald's Sign Still 'Up in Air'

By BETSY ROSSEN

An Antioch village board decision on granting McDonald's restaurant owners a variance to the sign ordinance has been delayed at least until January.

Although many people expected a vote to be taken Monday night on the zoning board of appeals' action, a 4-2 vote sent the recommendation to the Jan. 3 meeting of the planning and zoning committee. Dissenting trustees were Diane Rowley and Mike Haley.

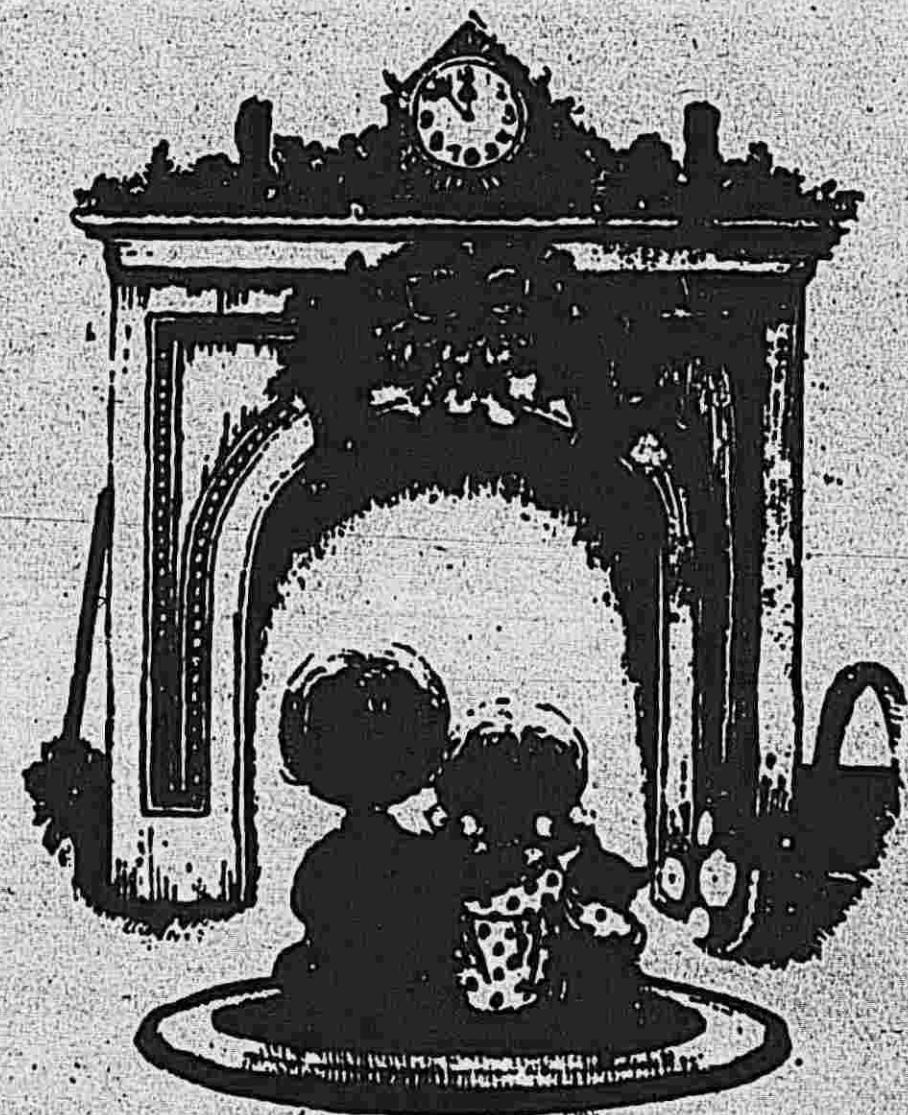

On Dec. 7 the zoning board conducted public hearing on the restaurant's request for two non-conforming signs on the Orchard St. property. The zoning board gave approval to a 24-ft. sign on Orchard, but disapproved of one 50 ft. tall on the southwest corner of the lot.

LAKE COUNTY HOUSING AUTHORITY representative Robert Cisek asked for and received the village board's backing for senior citizen housing projects now planned by the housing authority and other parties.

The county agency is now hoping to build at least three eight-unit buildings at Turner Drive and Depot St. with federal funding. Jan. 10 is the next application deadline to the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

At the Dec. 6 village board meeting, trustees

Collects Money for Children

By SHERENE JONES

The Dec. 15 meeting of Lakeside Rebekah Lodge was its annual pot-luck dinner and Christmas gathering.

In lieu of a gift exchange, money was collected and sent to our children's home in Lincoln, and our home for the aged in Mattoon.

Mattoon is in the process of building a new 120 bed dispensary and retirement home.

Don't forget to watch the Rose Bowl parade on New Year's Day. Our order enters a float in the parade and has won 20 awards over the years.

The float theme this year will be "America's future, helping others." The president of the Theda Rho of Illinois will ride on the float which is sponsored by all lodges, including Lakeside 82 of Antioch.

Our next meeting in January will feature installation of officers. It will be open to the public.

Elected officers to be installed are Ida Wysogiad, noble grand; Ruth Aldrich, vice grand; Clare Horton, recording secretary; Mary Ellis, financial secretary and Shirley Glenn, treasurer.

Many Reasons For Vandalism

To many adults, vandalism is a senseless crime, nothing more than wanton and needless destruction of property. And the only solution to vandalism, these adults contend, is continued punishment of the youthful offender.

Yet there are many psychological reasons why people commit vandalism, according to Roger Mick, a psychologist, and if people don't understand the reasons, then the problem of dealing with vandals may only worsen.

Mick, who sees adolescents and their parents at the Family Counseling Clinic in Grayslake, contends that frequently young people who are having problems of some sort also are the ones that are committing vandalism.

WHAT KINDS of problems? "Well, they may be failing at school, or they may be in constant conflict with their parents — or perhaps they are dissatisfied with the way things are going for them," Mick says.

He suggests there is often a relationship between the type of problem youths experience and the offenses against property that occur.

Mick, who has a doctorate in psychology, is by no means "soft" on vandals, for he says he strongly believes communities should do all they can to apprehend persons who commit vandalism.

He notes that vandalism appears to be on the rise in suburban communities. He favors the parental responsibility law which many municipalities are adopting, which fines a parent for damages their children incur.

And Mick agrees restitution should be made where possible.

BUT "SOLUTIONS" to vandalism will not occur unless the causes of vandalism also are determined — and these causes are as individual as the persons committing the crime.

"If a child commits even a single act of vandalism, it is significant," Mick contends. "We need to understand the motivation and the contributing conditions because repetition is common, and acts of vandalism by that child could increase."

Mick says he strongly believes that people have to combat any "attitude of indifference" that is displayed towards vandals — and get rid of the concept that vandalism is a senseless crime, for people do have reasons — conscious and unconscious — for committing vandalism.

"If we continue to look upon vandalism either as a phase a child is going through, or as a senseless act, we are not solving the problem, we are rather ignoring it," he said.

Oftentimes counseling for an adolescent may be needed — to help the youth and his parents, Mick says. Sometimes an evaluation of the youth may be enough, and it may turn out the youth does not need professional help.

ANOTHER FREQUENT problem children — and particularly teenagers — have is the result of labeling and stereotyping which may have occurred in earlier years.

Such a child has developed a negative self-image and views himself as a delinquent.

"If a child feels he is bad, he may grow up that way, and the earlier act of labeling becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy," Mick says. And that is a

Tempting scent to holiday candles

You have only to light a candle to fill your home with the tempting smells of holiday fare. Cranberries, gingerbread, nut bread waft through the air whetting family appetites. Hollyberry and fresh pine scented candles add to natural greenery and give an elegant touch to a mantle or dinner table. Scented candles, newly available, add to the festive mood of Christmas. To make candles last through the holiday season here are some suggestions:

★ Tapers on a dinner table should be at lip or chin level. The soft glow is flattering to all.

★ When blowing candles out hold your finger in front of the flame to keep the hot wax from spattering.

★ Scratching through the outer layer of wax with your fingernail will release additional fragrance from scented candles.

★ Store candles by laying them flat in a dark, dry place. For slow and even burning, place candles in refrigerator overnight before using.

learned of that deadline and HUD requirements for accompanying non-elderly housing. The housing authority meets that requirement with other facilities in the county.

THE BOARD VOTED UNANIMOUSLY to support senior housing, making official what it had informally expressed in recent meetings.

"I move that this board go on record," said Haley, "that this is a worthwhile project and that we do everything possible to effect senior citizen housing on an acceptable site."

Little is known about current plans for senior housing at 701 Main St., but indications are that property owner Alice Young and developer Edward Palmer are encountering problems meeting the application deadline, less than three weeks away.

POLICE OFFICER ANTHONY MILITANO'S resignation was accepted by the board. He plans to join a Fox Lake restaurant business.

Charles Watkins, a North Chicago policeman, was hired to fill the vacancy. He is expected to begin Antioch duty by mid-January.

REGULAR VILLAGE BOARD MEETINGS in January were changed to Jan. 10 and 24, instead of the usual first and third Mondays.

Committee meetings will be held Jan. 17 and 31.

Carter May Understand Mood of the Country

When he named Cyrus Vance as his Secretary of State and Bert Lance as director of the Office of Management and Budget, Jimmy Carter was probably following his instincts, but he may have been doing more.

He may have been showing that he has taken a close reading of the pulse of the body politic.

The signs are increasing that the political fallout from the Vietnam War and Watergate is coming to an end. Some evidence:

Potomac Associates, a Washington-based research group, recently surveyed public attitudes about foreign policy and national defense. Their findings are in sharp contrast to the mood of despair and cynicism expressed only a year or two ago.

THEY FOUND THAT today a majority wants the United States to be first in national defense capability and opposes recent trends toward Soviet superiority.

Just four years ago more than 50 percent of Americans favored reductions - even abolition - of defense spending. That has flopped. Today, Potomac finds a large majority favoring either present defense spending levels or higher ones.

I can attest to that change of mood from my own campaign experience earlier this year. When I began expressing concern about the decline in U.S. defense capability in relation to the Soviet Union, I found the intensity of people's agreement surprising.

FOR MONTHS, PRIVATE polls have been showing growing public disillusionment with our detente policy with the Soviet Union. Detente was launched at a time of deep public depression about America's role in the world. The idea of detente raised expectations. Too high, as it turned out.

The Soviets read our apparent enthusiasm for detente as a weakening of American resolve. They acted accordingly, in Vietnam, Angola and elsewhere. Happily, they were wrong. The resolve of the American people has been reawakened, according to Potomac's measurements.

Couple this with various polls showing independents (and some Democrats) converging with Republicans over defense versus social spending priorities and you see storm warnings going up for liberal politicians.

MORE SIGNS: Gallup, in October, measured opinion on whether unionization of teachers has helped or hurt the quality of public education. Only 22 percent said it had "helped"; 38 percent said it had "hurt." The rest weren't sure.

R.H. Bruskin Associates, early in the year, asked people their opinion of federal gun control legislation. By almost two-to-one (58 to 33 percent), the national sampling opposed it.

In last month's election, voters in Massachusetts, one of the most liberal of states, convincingly rejected a statewide gun control ballot measure.

Elected lawmakers never like to stray too far from what they think is the mood of the voters. Despite its very liberal credentials, the new Congress is likely to be cautious. They don't want to be blamed for things going wrong, and this time the buck will stop with them - or Carter.

BY REPLACING Henry Kissinger's one-man diplomatic style (with its overtones of pessimism about American willpower) with Vance's more traditional approach (and his selection has received bipartisan compliments), Carter may be signalling that he has correctly read the mood of the country and that his foreign policy will be one that refrains from empty saber-rattling, but which also accepts no nonsense.

The Lance appointment may spell bad news for the advocates of costly and potentially counterproductive schemes such as compulsory national health insurance and oil company divestiture.

Lance is known as a fiscal conservative. If he lives up to his reputation, he will be concentrating on measures to improve the economy which won't allow much room for such new schemes.

If so, President-elect Carter needn't worry about straying too far from the mood of the people, for these days they are saying they prefer a sound economy and a sound national defense to any new social engineering.

To improve your memory, lend people money.

"First It Was 'Grits And Fritz'... Then It Was 'Lance And Vance'. I Can Hardly Wait To See Who Gets Appointed With 'Lipshutz'."

The great problem is that the key to success doesn't always fit your ignition.

The Town Crier

We thought we had heard everything until last weekend when we met Karla Herbst's cat, Oliver.

Oliver actually is a talking cat. Just to prove it, Karla's dad, Bill, carried on a five-minute conversation with the beautiful gray cat. Whenever Bill would ask a question, Oliver would respond. And, cross my heart, some of the cat's comments were almost intelligible.

SPEAKING OF TALENTED animals, the Gutowski family on Crest Lane has a brilliant dog named Cider.

Cider entered the Antioch News basketball contest again last week and accurately predicted that Antioch would beat Grayslake.

But, proving that he is only human, Cider picked Antioch to win by only five points and the Sequoits won by 15.

We're not sure how Cider picks 'em, but we assume one of the Gutowskis asked how many points Antioch would win by, and maybe Cider barked five times.

ONE OF MY BEAUTIFUL nieces is Sister Barbara Pfarr, who is in Watertown, Wis., with the School Sisters of Notre Dame.

"Barbie," as she is known in our family, made the mistake recently of driving a little too rapidly through the small city of Watertown. A policeman stopped her and wrote out a speeding ticket.

Back at the convent, the other sisters now have a new name for her. You guessed it: "The Flying Nun."

HOW MANY of you know what "auld lang syne" means? We won't tell you till the end of this column.

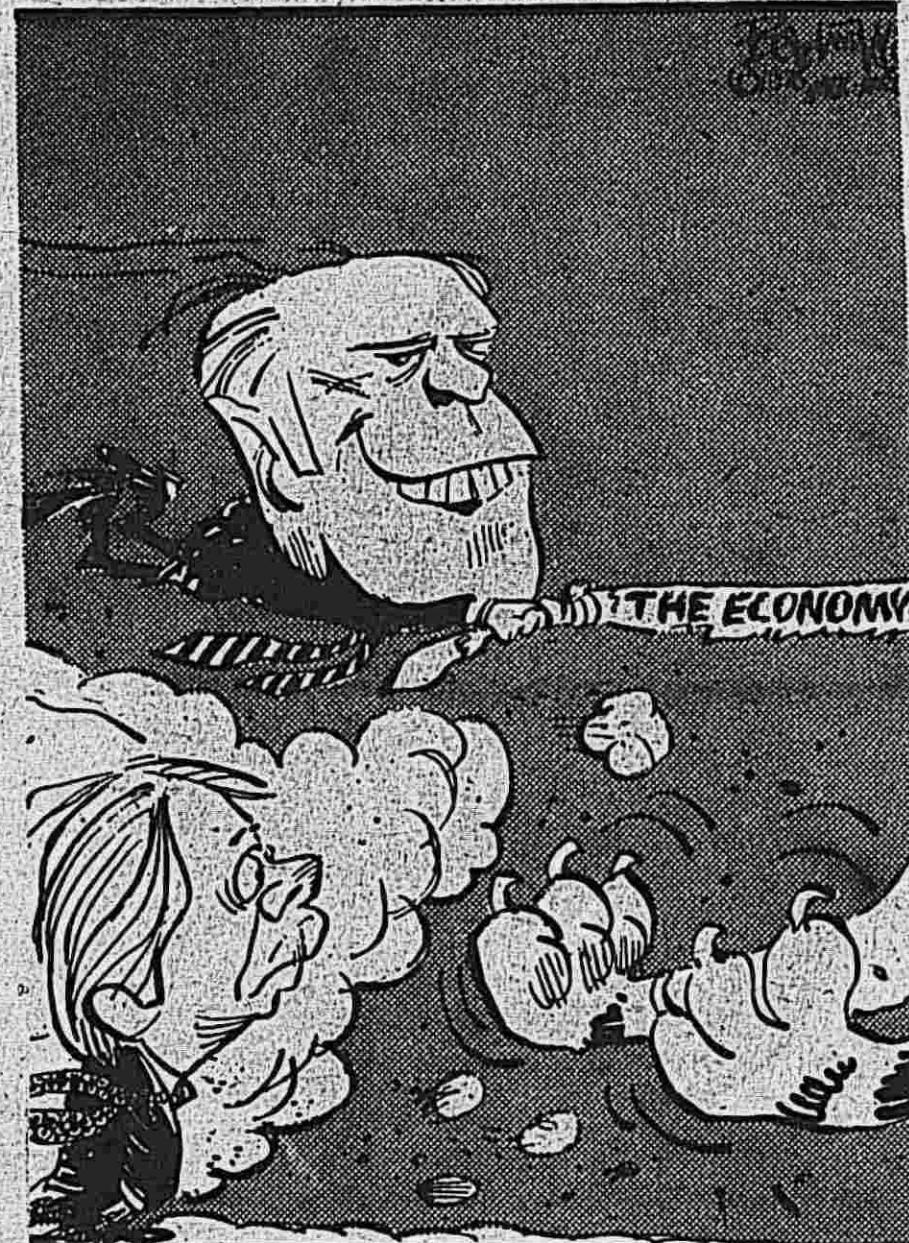

ANYTIME A WEIRD case comes up, you can count on the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) to jump in and defend the weirdo.

We can't say for sure that Bill Adkins, 14, and Terry Weatherman, 15, of Missouri, are strange youngsters but their high school principal forced them to eat the nine cigarettes they brought to school.

So the ACLU is considering legal action against the principal.

Gosh, what's so bad about eating nine cigarettes? We eat nine cigars a day and really enjoy them.

Auld lang syne is a Scottish expression meaning "the good old days." Nice of us to make your New Year's complete, wasn't it?

letters to the editor

Dear Sir:

There are more than 1,030,650 reasons for writing this letter.

The 30,000 number is for each and every Lion in the State. The 650 is for the number of Lions Clubs in Illinois participating in the 1976 Lions of Illinois Candy Day for the Blind.

The one million is for the money raised that day to help the legally blind and visually handicapped, through programs ranging from eye research to glaucoma screening to Leader Dogs for the Blind to social services and referral.

For each and every one of these reasons, we issue a heartfelt thank you to Antioch News for helping to make it possible. Without your support the people of Illinois would not know about our October 8 fund-raiser and what it accomplishes. Without your support a little blind child might not be able to go to camp, a young adult might not be able to go to work, a grandmother might not have any contact with the outside world.

The money collected on Candy Day is still coming in to the Foundation office. We already are reaching the million dollar mark and hopefully will surpass last year's donations. Thank you again for your coverage and compassion.

Most sincerely,

If you want to know how lucky I am, I'll tell you. I have two beautiful teen-age daughters.

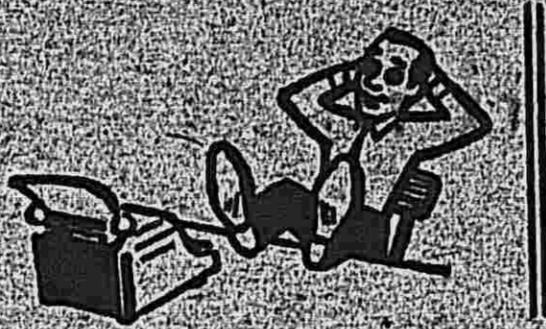

For my birthday they gave me a plaque which graces the wall of my office. The words were written by Henry David Thoreau and they are:

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears."

I believe in these words with my whole heart and, luckily for me, my two beautiful daughters understand.

A FEW YEARS ago, I spent some time in Dan Devine's office. He was coaching the Green Bay Packers then and, fortunately for him, he is now coaching at Notre Dame.

Dan Devine isn't your typical football coach. He isn't a tyrant as the late Vince Lombardi was, a coach who could produce professional champions.

But Dan Devine does okay as a college coach, and I'll never forget that his desk area included a framed "Deskside Prayer" which said, in part:

"Slow me down, Lord. Ease the pounding of my heart by the quiet of my mind... Steady my hurried pace with the vision of the eternal reach of time... Teach me the art of taking Minute Vacations... of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book..."

MY DAUGHTERS keep asking me:

"Dad, what do you want for Christmas?"

Nothing, really. But now that I've written this I'll get the "Deskside Prayer." And if they can't find it in time for Christmas, I'll get it for my birthday in March.

Because that's what life is all about.

State Tab For School $2 Billion

The State Board of Education has prepared a tentative budget request of $1,957,000,000 for elementary, secondary and vocational education for 1977-78. The increase of $237 million above the current fiscal year represents, according to State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin, a "full funding" budget for mandated state formula programs.

Major increases are projected for special education, vocational and regular pupil transportation. The budget includes a $138 million increase to provide for full funding of the general aid for all public schools.

Special education programs account for a $38 million increase, the largest of any program area, and will comply with state and federal statutory requirements.

Vocational education will increase by $6 million, and transportation by $14 million. Other grant areas include adult education, bilingual education and the free-textbook program.

Driver education and school lunch program funding remain at levels similar to the current fiscal year.

The board will take action on the budget at its January 13 meeting, which will be held in Springfield.

Pausing... The Ghost of Christmas Presents

By BETSY ROSSEN

It's better to give than to receive.

How often we've heard those words, little comfort though they may be when the wallet grows thin. The adage seems particularly perturbing during the Christmas season.

We worry about money, dash from party to party, tax our minds for new toy hiding places...

WHY BECOME ENRAPTURED with gift-giving, visits to Santa and stocking-stuffers?

It's tradition, we say. It wouldn't be Christmas without the garlands, tinsel and red velvet. Actually, some of these practices are less than 200 years old.

The name "Santa Claus" came here from the Dutch "Sinter Klaas." Dutch burghers in early New York portrayed him as a jolly old man and gradually, through the literature and drawings of the 18th century, he developed into the figure now celebrated.

Somewhere along the way he merged with the Norwegian mythical figure of Kriss Kringle, who contributed the sleigh and reindeer. The Dutch commemoration of St. Nicholas' visits to children on the eve of his feast day, Dec. 6, also added to the Santa mystique.

The Santa image then crossed the Atlantic Ocean again when Father Christmas was adopted in England and Pere Noel in France.

SO SANTA-INSPIRED GIVING is not as deeply historic as we once had thought. In fact, it was not until the 1800s that gift-giving became popular and Christmas was made a legal holiday in the United States.

Go back several centuries. Three visitors from the far East journeyed to see a tiny baby born in the rough stable in Bethlehem. They gave rare and beautiful gifts.

But first, as historian Matthew records, "they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshipped him." All that for a mere baby?

"Then, opening their treasures," continues the one-time tax collector, "they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh."

THOSE THREE GIFTS push aside the "mere baby" concept, and with it the modern day picture of a helpless infant who was cute and peaceful but has little to do with the here and now.

Gold signifies royalty, just as the wisemen wondered, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews?"

The sweet-smelling frankincense could be burned before him who came as the Son of God.

Myrrh was used in the preparation of bodies for burial, an indication of the vital role Jesus' death was to play in God's purposes for both him and the world.

BUT OF ALL THE GIFT-GIVERS spoken of during Christmas, the most loving is God Himself: "For God so loved the world that He gave..."

He didn't bargain or refuse, He simply yet totally gave.

Marvel at the gift and thank the giver, who kept promises He made centuries before, such as those concerning Jesus' lineage (Isaiah 11), birthdate (Daniel 9), birthplace (Micah 5), life (Isaiah 9), death (Psalm 22, Isaiah 53) and resurrection (Psalm 16).

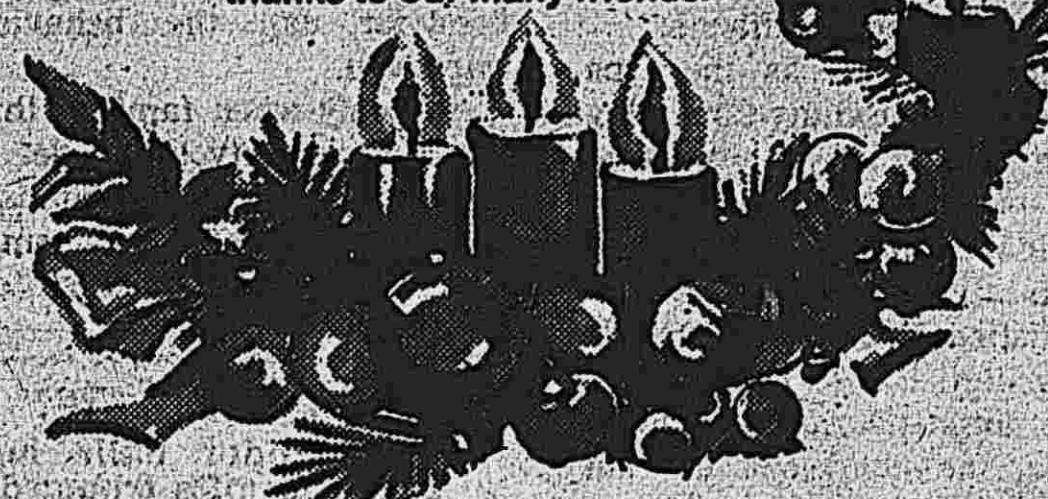

RATHER THAN TAKING AN ANNUAL PEEK at a cooing babe in a manger, consider him whose life was lived and death volunteered out of love for us.

Jesus Christ is God's perfect gift of love to us. To every gift one of three response is made: we can refuse it, we can try to pay for it, or we can receive it gratefully and joyfully.

It's better to receive.

Reasons for Vandalism

pattern and image which needs to be adjusted, and changed — for the health of the child, he affirms.

Counseling — such as the type Mick offers at the Family Counseling Clinic on Route 120 just west of Route 45 — often can open up lines of communication for a child, so the youth can talk freely about what he is dissatisfied with, and what is bothering him.

"If the dissatisfaction goes unrecognized, the child can act out hostility in many areas. Or, as dissatisfaction and frustration build up, these can lead to a depression," he said.

MICK SAYS in counseling he tries to develop non-threatening relationships that are "very verbal and very expressive — both for the parents and the child." He sees the family as a unit. He tries to encourage parents to develop good listening techniques — so they can hear what is bothering their child. Oftentimes, he admits, he becomes the intermediary — or the buffer — between a child and his parents.

Only when parents attempt to get at the reasons for their child's poor behavior can the behavior be improved.

And only when families throughout a community try to get at the underlying causes of vandalism can the problems of vandalism ever hope to be solved, Mick states.

SCENTED GIFT

Pomander balls make beautiful gifts trimmed up with velvet ribbons, lace and pretty braid. Tie them prettily from bits and pieces you have tucked away in your sewing box. Their fragrance will last long after the holidays are gone.

CHRISTMAS WRAP

Aluminum foil makes any gift special looking and is especially marvelous for wrapping those odd shaped things that never seem to fit into any box. Wrap and tie with brightly colored yarn . . . several different colors at the same time!

For the convenience of riders traveling from Chicago on the afternoons of Dec. 24 and 31, the Milwaukee Road has made the following changes in its commuter train schedules:

North Line train 2113, which departs from Chicago Union Station at 2:10 p.m., will make all stops between Chicago and Fox Lake. Train 2127, which normally departs from Chicago at 5:20 p.m., will not operate. All other trains will operate on regular schedules.

West Line train 2213, which leaves from Chicago at 2 p.m., will make all stops between Chicago and Elgin. Train 2225, which leaves from Chicago at 5:12 p.m., will not operate. Train 2227, which departs from Chicago at 5:15 p.m. will make additional stops at Medinah, Roselle and Bartlett. All other trains will operate on regular schedules.

Additional coaches will be assigned to all North Line trains departing from Chicago between 12:05 p.m. and 4:30 p.m., and to all West Line trains leaving from Chicago between 11:35 a.m. and 3:40 p.m.

On Christmas Day and New Year's Day all suburban trains will operate on regular Sunday schedules.

It's a party! THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

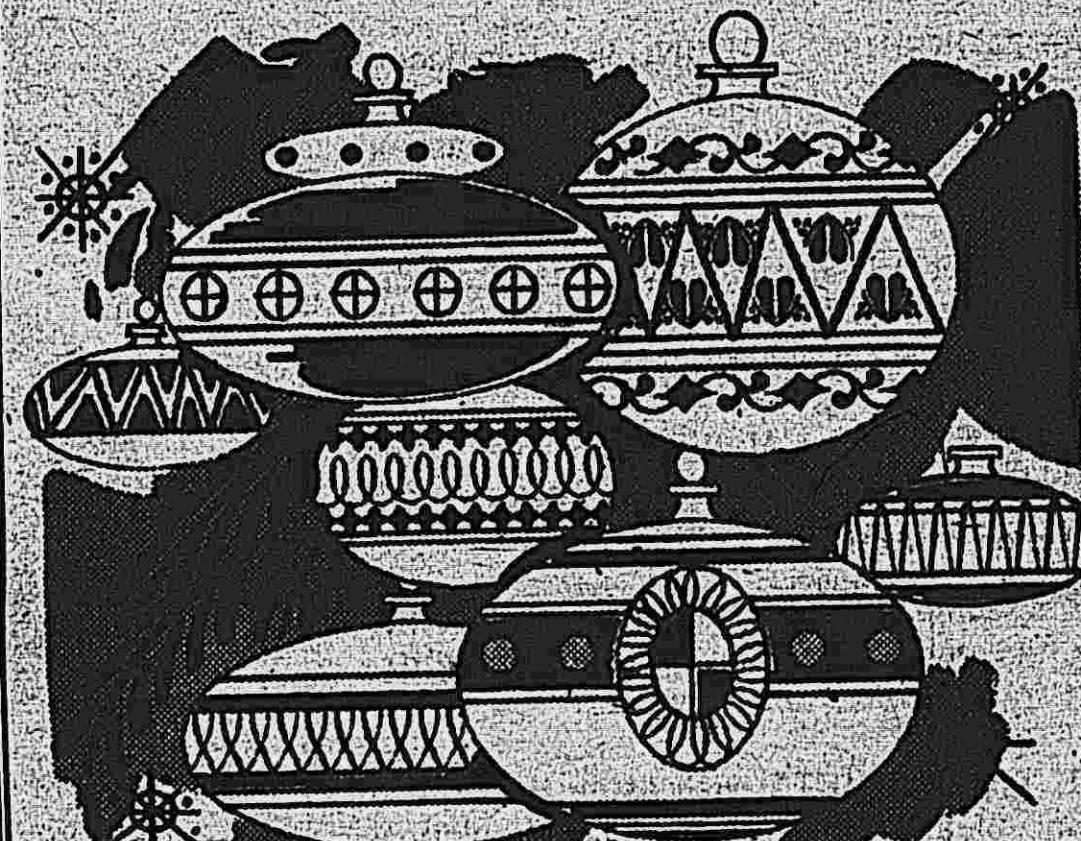

Everyone gets into the act at this favorite Christmas party. Invite dear friends and relatives for a heart-warming evening for all. The hostess heaps baskets with ribbons, popcorn, colored papers and cellophane, foil, seals, bells, colored yarns, scissors, glue, whatever. Each one makes ornaments from whatever suits his or her fancy, and then uses them to trim the tree. Prizes can be awarded for the funniest, prettiest, or cleverest ornament. After light refreshments, guests take home one or two of their creations for their own tree.

Christmas Cheer

Residents Enjoy Santa, Caroling

By JENNIE LIPMAN

With the holiday season upon us, Christmas chairman Elaine Weber reports that Santa Claus completed his Dec. 18 visits to Oakwood Knolls children. He climbed down the chimneys of some 50 homes, bringing goodies to 128 boys and girls on his list.

Twenty-eight people enjoyed the annual Christmas caroling last Wednesday evening. They brought home-baked treats and holiday cheer to lifetime residents and shut-ins of our community.

To those who donated cookies, thank-you! Winners of the outdoor home decoration contest, judged Dec. 21, will be announced in two weeks.

DEC. 21 NOT ONLY MARKED the beginning of winter but the beginning of another year together for Sally and Curt Denny. Happy anniversary!

Some of our friends will be celebrating their special days during this Christmas season. Here's hoping that their birthdays will not be overlooked due to the shopping rush and merriment that the holidays bring.

Happy Birthday to Kathy Oddsen on Dec. 23. Barbara Heath will be making her birthday wish on Christmas Eve.

A special birthday greeting is sent to Tina Hull who will find more than Christmas gifts under her tree the 25th. Happy birthday!

KIM HEATH, a member of the American Girls Bowling team, earned high game Dec. 4, bowling 94.

Merry Christmas, everyone! Have a safe and happy holiday.

Quaker Wins Award

The Quaker Federal Credit Union of Antioch has earned a National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) thrift honor award for its success in stimulating savings among small savers.

The credit union attained a monthly growth rate of 3.4 percent in accounts under $20,000, well above the average for federal credit unions.

of similar size. On June 1 the credit union had 353 members with total savings of $226,826.

Chartered in August 1961, it serves employees of Quaker Industries, Inc. who work in Antioch and members of their families. John Bedford is currently serving as president; Richard Block is treasurer.

School Board News

Local school districts are concerned about the effects a unit school district in Grayslake would have on Antioch schools.

AT THE DEC. 14 MEETING of Antioch Grade School Dist. 34, members voted to send a letter asking for a delay in unit school formation until more information is obtained on the impact on neighboring districts.

Antioch Community High School's board of education discussed possible effects at its Dec. 16 meeting.

Though no specific action has been taken, the issue promises to be vital in 1977.

IN OTHER ACTION, the Dist. 34 board cancelled its meeting scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 23.

The high school board has set Jan. 13 as the date for a special meeting to review student discipline.

Make First Communion

On the third Sunday of Advent, Dec. 12, the following children made their first communion at St. Ignatius Episcopal Church at the 9:30 a.m. Eucharist:

Caroline Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown of Waukegan; Michael Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fields of Antioch; Raymond (Butch) Johnson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Antioch; and Rebecca and Anthony Le Blanc, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Sloma of Trevor, Wis.

On Saturday, Dec. 4, Betty Sloma and Peggy Van Patten were confirmed at the Cathedral of St. James in Chicago by Bishop Quintin Pri-mo.

KAREN EDDLEMAN

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Eddleman of Perryville, Mo. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen, to Don Mendrala, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Mendrala of Twin Lakes, Wis.

The bride-to-be will receive an associate degree in May as a medical laboratory technician in from St. Louis Community College.

Don is currently attending St. Louis School of Pharmacy, where he is a member of Delta Sigma Theta fraternity. He will graduate in May 1978.

A July wedding is being planned.

Illinois Lions Raised Over $1 Million

The canisters have been stored for another year. The aprons are folded. The candy is gone.

The 1976 Lions of Illinois Candy Day for the Blind is over. More than 30,000 people manned streetcorners all over the state for the event, held annually to benefit blind and visually handicapped people.

All the funds are not yet in, but projections show that the total raised will be more than $1 million, an increase over last year.

There are some 650 Lions clubs in the state. Most held Candy Day and gave out candy rolls in exchange for donations.

Work on behalf of blind people has been going on for years among the Lions, and it is expanding. Funds raised still go to such groups as Hadley School for the Blind; leader dogs for the blind; and Dialogue, a recorded magazine for the blind.

The Lions are also initiating new programs such as social services and referral, as well as the mobile glaucoma screening unit and the establishment of eye donor centers.

Merry Christmas, County Board-Spender of the golden hoard,

With mini-sense and max-confusion.

Then — just at last one thought transcends:

Woman's Club Celebrates Christmas

By FLORENCE PEDERSEN

The Antioch Woman's Club's Christmas party and potluck luncheon Dec. 6 was enjoyed by all present. Phyllis McMillen assisted by Ann St. Pierre as model, presented an interesting program on her fan collection.

Music was arranged by Mabel Lou Weber, who accompanied soloist Florence Babusek. Barbara Madden led the audience in singing of Christmas carols.

Santa was portrayed beautifully by Leona Petersen. President Irene Hahn wished everyone a joyous and blessed Christmas.

MEMBERS ON THE COMMITTEE included: Kay Costoff, Lillian Ackerman, Florence Babusek, Phyllis Bucar, Ann Conners, Colette Dayton, Carol Delaney, Mary Hallet, Janice Hagstrom, Dorothy Teister and Delores Abderholden.

THE ANTIOCH WOMAN'S CLUB will meet again at 1 p.m. Jan. 17 at the First National Bank of Antioch's community room.

The program, "How to Keep Your Estate Away from Uncle Sam," will be presented by Dell McFall. Mr. McFall will give an informative, amusing talk about retirement, estate planning and legal shortcuts in preparing income tax forms.

New Classes at Camp Ravenswood

Women's dance and yoga classes are new programs at Camp Ravenwood YMCA, Jackie Moeller, assistant director, announced.

BELLY DANCING will also be offered for the first time. Students will learn basic and advanced motions and exercises.

Paula Marlow of Antioch will instruct the course. She has taught at the Libertyville YMCA, Waukegan Park District and Lake Forest Park District and was the only native American to appear in a concert with Turkish performers. Ms. Marlow, who has been teaching for more than five years, has given many performances for groups and parties.

THE YOGA CLASS will be taught by Carol Sylvester of McHenry. She teaches Hatha yoga which emphasizes the physical, rather than meditative aspects. Exercises and breathing control for relaxation will be emphasized. Ms.

Sylvester also teaches yoga and dance at the McHenry Community College.

Tap and modern dance will be taught by Paula Moeller of Waukegan. She was a student of the Marva Joyce Studio for over 13 years and has considerable experience in teaching.

"We are pleased to offer these new programs with such qualified leadership," Ms. Moeller said. "These classes will expand our women's program and hopefully appeal to area ladies."

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - Get rid of negative feelings that may hamper reaching your goals; welcome the opportunity to work with other people. By joining together efforts are more apt to pay off.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Don't day dream about ambitions, a week when you should begin to think about future aims. Being too philosophical can hamper down-to-earth goings on.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Self-expression may be difficult, but bide your time, you get your chance to speak-out when it counts. Make the best of partnership affairs, try to maintain a diplomatic attitude.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Obstinacy only hampers plans so be willing to listen to and work with people who share your interests. Use extreme care when going over legal papers and don't be forced into signing.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - A week when you can socialize. Make the effort to get out where people circulate. New business deals may occur.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Inspirational ideas should have room to materialize. Make plans to contact people who are ready to share your views; talk over ways of improvements can be made.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Additional responsibilities of a domestic nature may interfere with the week's routine. Recreational interests should not be neglected either.

Woman's Club Celebrates Christmas

By FLORENCE PEDERSEN

The Antioch Woman's Club's Christmas party and potluck luncheon Dec. 6 was enjoyed by all present. Phyllis McMillen assisted by Ann St. Pierre as model, presented an interesting program on her fan collection.

Music was arranged by Mabel Lou Weber, who accompanied soloist Florence Babusek. Barbara Madden led the audience in singing of Christmas carols.

Santa was portrayed beautifully by Leona Petersen. President Irene Hahn wished everyone a joyous and blessed Christmas.

MEMBERS ON THE COMMITTEE included: Kay Costoff, Lillian Ackerman, Florence Babusek, Phyllis Bucar, Ann Conners, Colette Dayton, Carol Delaney, Mary Hallet, Janice Hagstrom, Dorothy Teister and Dolores Abderholden.

THE ANTIQUE WOMAN'S CLUB will meet again at 1 p.m. Jan. 17 at the First National Bank of Antioch's community room.

The program, "How to Keep Your Estate Away from Uncle Sam," will be presented by Dell McFall. Mr. McFall will give an informative, amusing talk about retirement, estate planning and legal shortcuts in preparing income tax forms.

New Classes at Camp Ravenswood

Women's dance and yoga classes are new programs at Camp Ravenwood YMCA, Jackie Moeller, assistant director, announced.

BELLY DANCING will also be offered for the first time. Students will learn basic and advanced motions and exercises.

Paula Marlow of Antioch will instruct the course. She has taught at the Libertyville YMCA, Waukegan Park District and Lake Forest Park District and was the only native American to appear in a concert with Turkish performers. Ms. Marlow, who has been teaching for more than five years, has given many performances for groups and parties.

THE YOGA CLASS will be taught by Carol Sylvester of McHenry. She teaches Hatha yoga which emphasizes the physical, rather than meditative aspects. Exercises and breathing control for relaxation will be emphasized. Ms.

Sylvester also teaches yoga and dance at the McHenry Community College.

Tap and modern dance will be taught by Paula Moeller of Waukegan. She was a student of the Marva Joyce Studio for over 13 years and has considerable experience in teaching.

"We are pleased to offer these new programs with such qualified leadership," Ms. Moeller said. "These classes will expand our women's program and hopefully appeal to area ladies."

Astro-Analysis

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - Get rid of negative feelings that may hamper reaching your goals; welcome the opportunity to work with other people. By joining together efforts are more apt to pay off.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Don't day dream about ambitions, a week when you should begin to think about future aims. Being too philosophical can hamper down-to-earth goings on.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Self-expression may be difficult, but bide your time, you get your chance to speak out when it counts. Make the best of partnership affairs, try to maintain a diplomatic attitude.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Obstinacy only hampers plans so be willing to listen to and work with people who share your interests. Use extreme care when going over legal papers and don't be forced into signing.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - A week when you can socialize. Make the effort to get out where people circulate. New business deals may occur.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Inspirational ideas should have room to materialize. Make plans to contact people who are ready to share your views; talk over ways of improvements can be made.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Additional responsibilities of a domestic nature may interfere with the week's routine. Recreational interests should not be neglected either.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - A busy place may be more than you bargained for so try to slow down before taking on more career plans. Talk over ambitions with an older person who has professional advice.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Your determination to get ahead is your best advantage now; use it constructively. Increased energy can also help to provide.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - You now have the expertise and know-how to make personal gains. Communications is your best source so make contact with those who boost your morale.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Call on friends you can count on. A new routine can be stimulating, be open to new suggestions which indicate changes.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Don't be self-centered with your thinking, be more empathetic toward others. Broaden your horizons by getting involved in new civic work and community activities.

For Carmel
Jan. 8

Registration for the 1977 freshmen class at Carmel Catholic High School in Mundelein will take place on Saturday, Jan. 8. All eighth grade boys and girls who plan to attend Carmel next September must go to the school to register and take a series of ability and achievement tests.

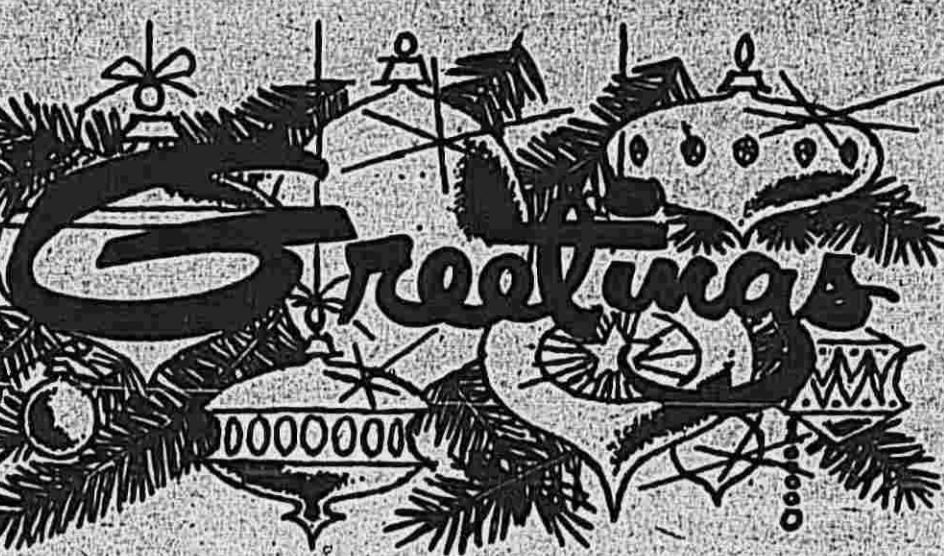

The test results, along with information received from the student's elementary school, will be used by Carmel to schedule the student for next year.

The testing will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. No student may be admitted late, and no further testing date is planned for later in the year.

The student must bring a $5.00 testing fee.

A bus marked "Lakeland" and numbered "1" will stop at the following churches that morning: St. Peter's, 7:15 a.m.; St. Bede's, 7:30 a.m.; and Prince of Peace, 7:45 a.m.

Students will be returned to the pick-up points.

Indoor Soccer Program Starts Here on Jan. 3

With the help of the Antioch Park Commission, Cornelius Lulofs of Antioch has organized an indoor soccer program for boys ages 12 to 18.

"In the spring, we will have an outdoor program and also hope to establish a girls soccer team as Sue Koppa, parks and recreation coordinator, has had many requests from the young ladies," Lulofs said. "We would also like to see the younger children, in the lower grade school, participate in the outdoor program, from 6 to 12 years of age, if all goes well."

Lulofs has been a professional soccer referee for many years, in his native Holland and in this country.

"I have never done any coaching," he said. "But Jerry Sandberg of Antioch High has kindly offered to help me out with the boys every Monday night. We will meet at the high school at 7 p.m. and the first meeting will be on Jan. 3.

"We will have two very important guests at our Jan. 3 meeting," Lulofs said. "One is Bill Foulkes, formerly of Manchester United, who is a living legend in his homeland of England and other parts of the world where soccer is the No. 1 sport. He is now head coach of the Chicago Sting, Chicago's professional soccer team, and will be accompanied by Willy Roy, one of America's best soccer players, who is the Sting's assistant coach."

"I am not exaggerating when I say Bill Foulkes is to soccer what Babe Ruth is to baseball," Lulofs said.

"It is a privilege that he is coming to visit our town and has quite a program planned, including soccer films. We hope as many people as possible will welcome him to Antioch. Not only children who are interested in playing soccer, but the parents and grandparents as well."

Frosh Matmen Remain Undefeated

Antioch's high flying freshmen wrestlers continued to win last week with victories over Carmel Corsairs and the Grayslake Rams. The double victory brought the current Sequoits record to eight wins and no losses.

IN THE CARMEL MATCH, the Sequoits gained pins from Jim Schlarbaum (:58), Mitch Lasco (1:40), Jim Davis (3:24), Mitch Case (1:39), Chuck Bogaerts (3:25), Phil Bielawski (3:43), Kevin Murphy (3:43), Dave Unrein (:50) and Mark Abear, gaining an 8-3 decision.

The eight pins against Carmel was a season high for the Sequoits in a single match.

The final score was Antioch 57, Carmel 12.

ON FRIDAY THE ANTIOCH GRAPPLERS traveled to Grayslake and came home with a 47-24 win over the Rams.

Leading the Antioch attack with pins were: Jim Davis (:50), Mitch Case (:49), Chuck Bogaerts (3:19), Kevin Murphy (1:07), Dave Unrein (1:35), and Scott Petersen a 15-2 decision.

MUCH OF THE CREDIT for the team's successful season, according to coach Steve Wapon, goes to assistant freshman coach Dan Mikal. Coach Mikal is in his first year as an Antioch wrestling coach.

The Sequoits are having a busy week as they participate in two freshman Christmas tournaments: Grayslake Tourney (Tuesday and Wednesday) and Niles North Tourney (Thursday).

5 Accurately Predicted Antioch's 15-Point Win

Antioch's 15-point victory over Grayslake last Friday came as no surprise to Sequoit fans.

Five of the entrants in the Antioch News' basketball contest forecast the exact margin of victory. Thus, to determine the prize distribution, we had to use the tie-breaker ... Saturday night's game in which North Chicago defeated Antioch by eight points.

Jayce Redmer, after picking Antioch to beat Grayslake by 15, said that North Chicago would beat Antioch by five points. He was closest and wins first prize, $15 in cash from Bob's Septic Service and Cement Co.

MIKE TEELEY WON the second prize, a $10 gift certificate at Candlelight Galleries, Inc., by picking North Chicago to triumph by 12 points.

Third prize, a $5 gift certificate at the Piggy Bank Discount Store, goes to Mary Furlan, who picked North Chicago by 20.

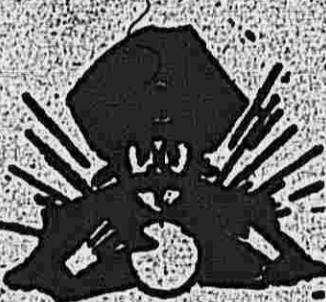

Paul Kreulach and Marilyn Sterbenz also forecast Antioch's 15-point victory over Grayslake, but they lost out when they said Antioch would beat North Chicago.

All prizes will be in the mail soon.

A LOT OF FANS came close last week. Laura Dubek picked Antioch to beat Grayslake by 16 points (her brother, Bill, should have scored one more point) and Rodger Kruse and Walter Carlson predicted a 13-point win for Antioch.

Picking Antioch to win by 17 points were Kathy Toft, George Schoenleben and last week's winner, Laura Stewart. If only one of the Sequoits had made one more basket.

Another contest appears in this week's Antioch News. Our office will be closed part of the time during the holidays, so if we're not here, either mail your entries or put them in the big mailbox on our front door.

Sequoits Shape Up To Trim Grayslake

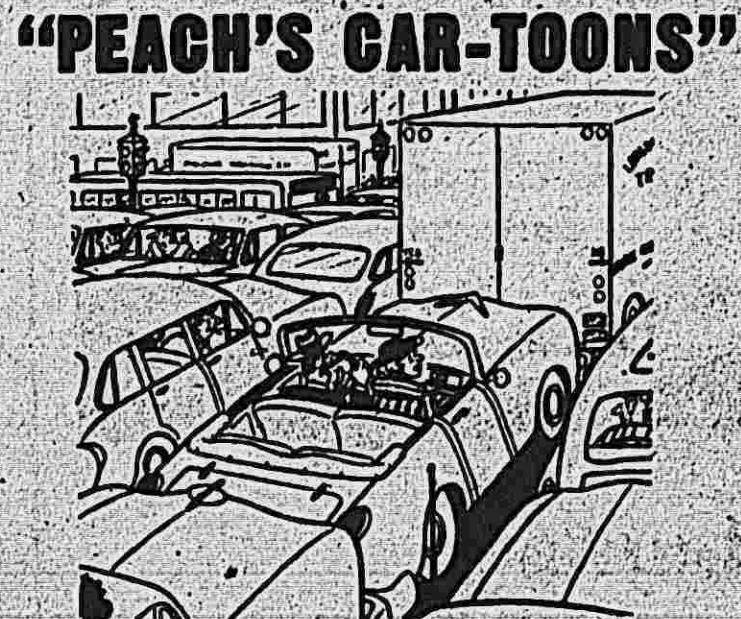

By MIKE WITT

SCRAMBLED BASKETBALL PLAYERS included Tracy Sodman (foreground) and Dennis Korjenek of Antioch, scrapping for a loose ball with one Grayslake player while two others looked on. Last Friday's game at the Antioch gymnasium was a crowd-pleaser for local fans as Sodman, Korjenek and their teammates played an outstanding second half to score a 54-39 win and boost their conference record to 2-1.

Behind the play of Steve Pilcher, Tim Huebner and Bill Dubek, the Antioch Sequoits rallied to defeat Grayslake 54-39 Friday night, and up their conference record to 2-1.

In the first half the Sequoits just couldn't get it together. They missed six free throws and shot only 33 percent from the floor.

Their shooting woes combined with some accurate Grayslake long range bombing, added up to a 24-22 Grayslake lead.

But it was the Antioch ball club that was ready to play in the second half. With Tracy Sodman getting into foul trouble early in the third quarter, Pilcher entered the game and his presence seemed to spark the Sequoits.

PILCHER HIT ON a couple of baskets, and Dubek caught a hot hand, and the team was off and running. Grayslake consistently got off only one shot as Antioch swarmed the boards with Huebner leading the assault. It all resulted in Antioch outscoring its opponents 18-6.

The Sequoits shot 50 percent from the floor in the second half, and 41 percent for the game. They also outrebounded the Rams 35-27, with Huebner grabbing 13.

A key to the game was the fact that the Sequoits cracked down on Grayslake's scoring stars in the second half. Ed Brady and Mark Francis combined for 16 points in the first half, and were limited to four in the second half, with Francis getting shut-out.

DUBEK, WHO SEEMS to have found a home shooting at the top of the key, led all scorers with 18 points. Huebner followed with 12 and Pilcher added eight.

A poor aspect of the game for the Sequoits was their 4-13 on charity throws.

Coach Roger Andrews commented.

"The team played very good defense, and rebounded very well. They stayed with our offense, and made the necessary floor adjustments when needed. They also showed a lot of poise. We trailed at the half and didn't panic."

rude reception at North Chicago as they were defeated 63-55.

The junior studded lineup was down by as many as 22 points, but it kept coming back behind a hard-nosed defense that never quit coming.

The game was marked by good performances from Pat Houghton and Brian Andrews.

"HOUGHTON SEEMS to have found himself," Coach Andrews was happy to note.

Brian Andrews scored 21 points and led the team in assists, rebounds and recoveries.

As the team heads into the Rockford Christmas tournament, Coach Andrews sees improvements needed on offense.

"We need more consistency (not unusual for an inexperienced team). Also, our field goal shooting, such as shot selection and missing lay-ups, needs straightening up. Although Saturday night it was better, our free throw shooting also needs improvement."

ANTIOCH RETURNS to conference play on Friday, Jan. 7, with a short trip to Fox Lake for a game against Grant's Bulldogs.

Antioch-Grant games are usually thrillers, so many Sequoit fans are expected to follow their team for that one.

Then, on Saturday, Jan. 8, Antioch will play an 8 p.m. home game against Woodstock.

The conference standings right now are: Warren 3-0, Antioch 2-1, Grant 2-1, Round Lake 1-2, Woodstock 1-2 and Grayslake 0-3. The closeness of last Friday's Antioch-Grayslake game, until the Sequoits played brilliantly in the second half, shows how well the league is balanced.

BEFORE THEY RESUME conference play in January, the Sequoits will make their annual appearance in the big Rockford Christmas Classic. On Tuesday, Dec. 28, at 3:30 p.m. they open the tournament against Chicago Mendel Catholic. Sixteen teams, including some of state's best, are involved.

After playing Mendel, the Sequoits will return on

"Without optimism there can be no vitality."

John Buchan

Wednesday, Dec. 29, to play in either the winners' or losers' bracket.

Some of the competition includes Rockford Boyland, Chicago St. Rita, Chicago Fenger and East St. Louis.

Against Grayslake last Friday the Sequoits made only 10 of their 33 field goal attempts in the first half, but they completely dominated the second half by outscoring the Rams 32-15. Antioch's "hands-up" zone defense kept Grayslake from getting anything but outside shots and the Sequoits quickly grabbed the rebounds.

"Reserve Steve Pilcher did a super job filling in for Tracy Sodman, who was in foul trouble," said Coach Andrews. "We were extremely pleased with the team's defense and its steady improvement as a whole."

Antioch's Cagers Getting Better

THE LOSS TO North Chicago left Antioch with a season record of 3-5. The Sequoits surged to close the gap to 61-53 with a minute left and had possession... but North Chicago's defense held on to win by eight points.

"There were some bright spots," Andrews said. "Pat Houghton had a very good game and contributed 13 points. Brian Andrews had a career high of 21 points and led the team in rebounding with 11 boards. The team showed much courage to fight back after being down by 22 points. Reserve Steve Pilcher did very well for the second night so, all in all, there are some good signs."

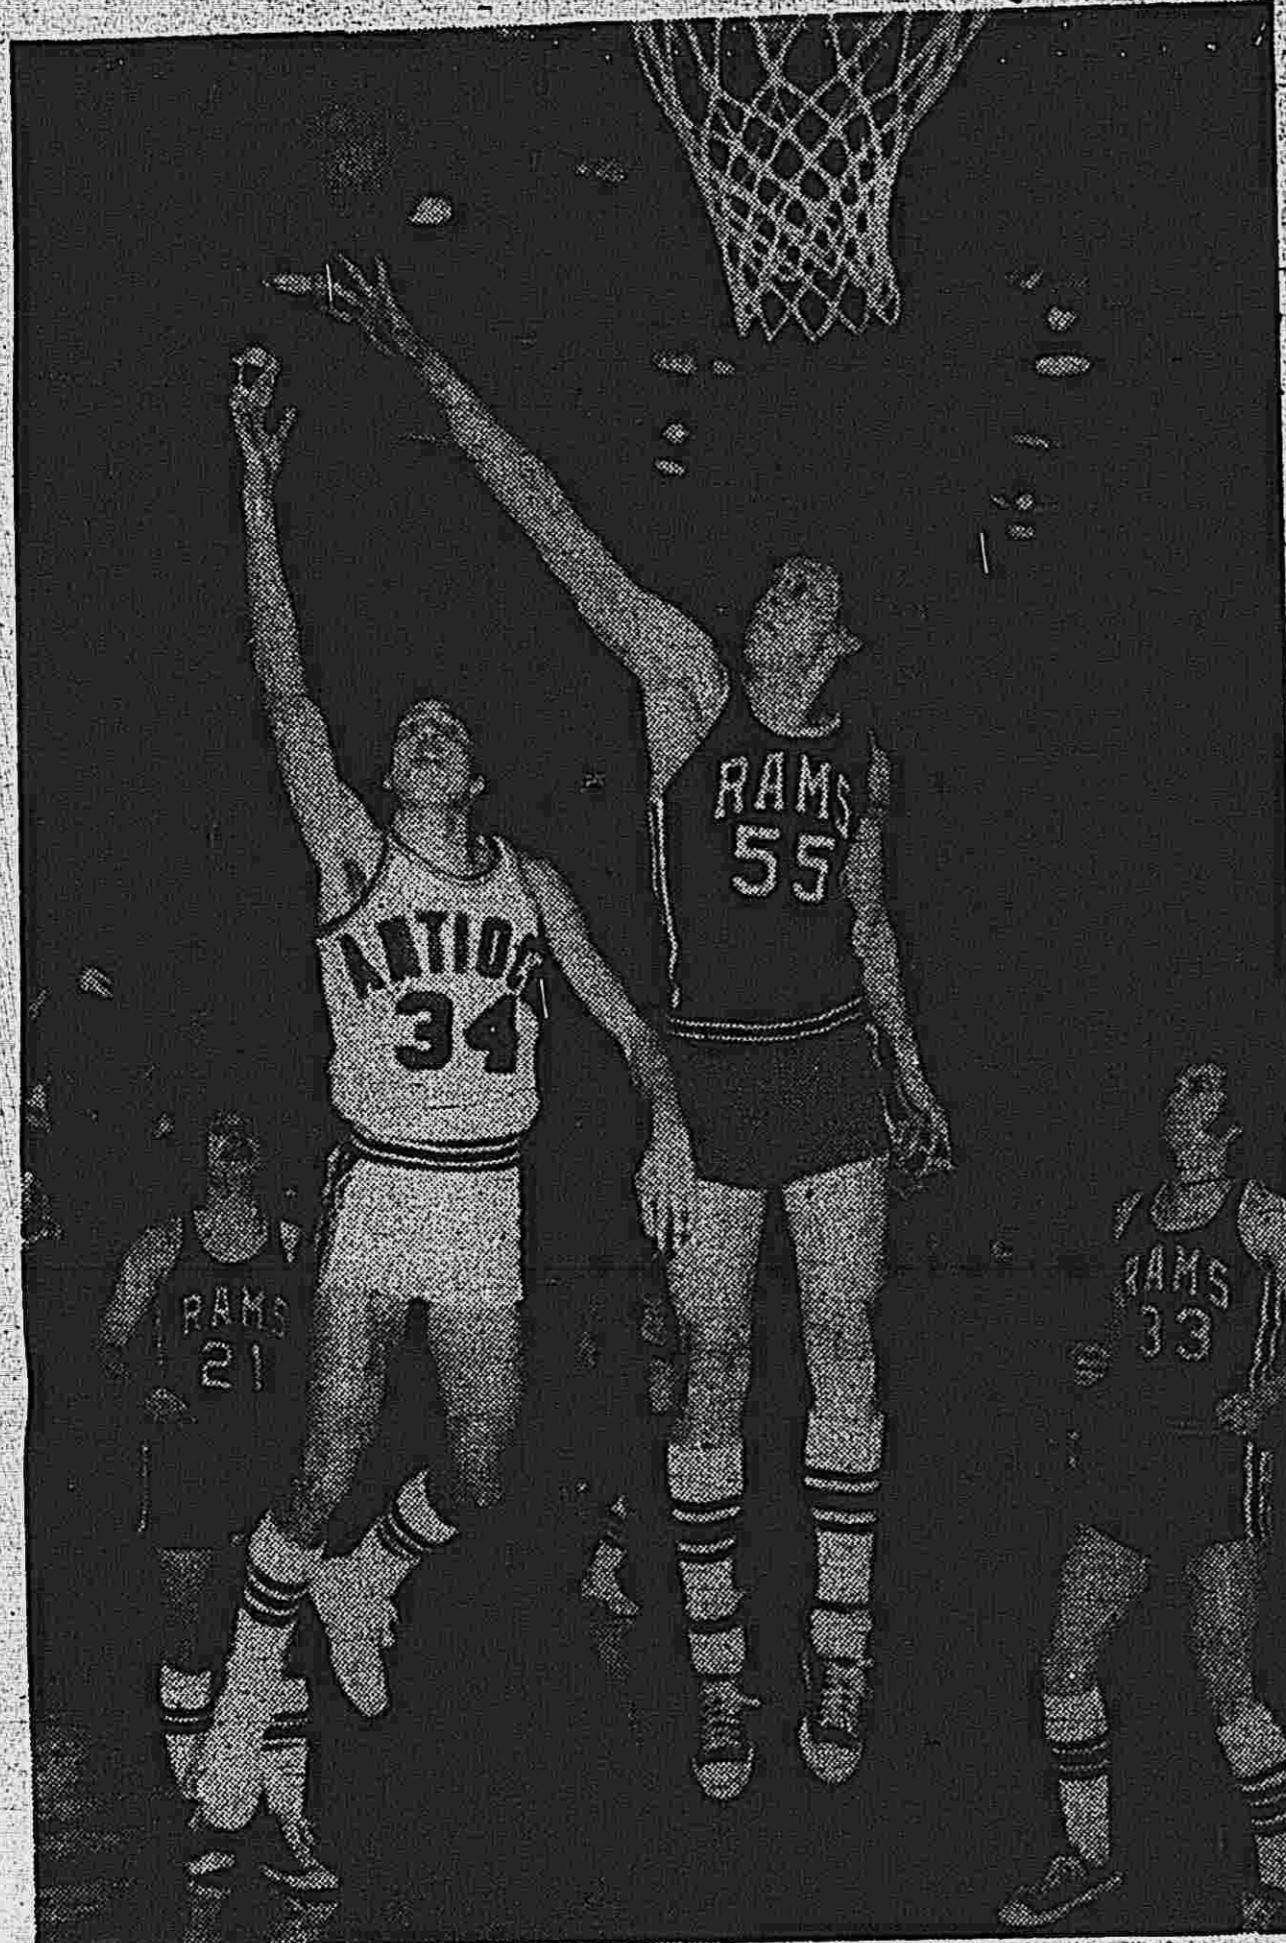

STATISTICS WERE interesting. Shooting star Dubek swished nine of his 18 field goal attempts against Grayslake, but North Chicago's defense held him to six baskets in 20 tries the following night.

Houghton had three field goals against North Chicago and made seven of eight free throw tries.

Brian Andrews hit on six of 10 field goal attempts, and nine of 15 free throws as he scored 21 points at North Chicago.

Pilcher made all six of his free throw attempts in the two games. Against Grayslake he made all three of his field goal attempts.

Tim Huebner pulled down 13 rebounds against Grayslake. Houghton contributed seven assists and Andrews six.

ANTIOCH'S BRIAN ANDREWS (34) vies for a rebound with Mark Francis of Grayslake. Andrews and his teammates played an outstanding second half here last Friday to pull away and whip their rivals 54-39.

The Antioch High School varsity wrestlers were ambushed last

Friday night at Grayslake 27-19.

The meet was close after Grayslake took a 6-0 lead with a pin at 98 pounds and Antioch came back with three decisions to lead 9-6. Bob Gossman, Marvin Gibson and Randy Larsen were Antioch's winners.

Grayslake tied it at 9-9 with a win at 126 pounds but didn't regain the lead until the 185-pound match, when Don Rathude pinned Antioch's Rick Dauck.

Before that, John Kakacek scored a superior decision for Antioch at 132 pounds, winning 16-2, and Geof Nordstrom won at 155 pounds. Rich Gorski of Antioch tied his opponent at 167 pounds.

Grayslake won the heavyweight match to capture the team victory.

COACH TED DeROUSSE'S Antioch varsity now has a season record of 5-1 and a league record of 1-1.

The holidays will find the Sequoits participating in four tournaments. The freshmen entered the Grayslake frosh tourney yesterday and today, and will compete at Niles North in a tournament on Thursday.

ANTIOCH WILL HOST its own sophomore tournament Thursday with eight teams coming to town for a "classic" that begins at 10 a.m.

The varsity will wrestle in the Glenbrook South tournament next Monday and Tuesday. The meet features 16 of the best teams in northern Illinois.

Upper Grade School Wrestlers Win

The Antioch Upper Grade School wrestling team opened its dual meet season against Mundelein Sandburg last week and scored victories in both the "A" and "B" meets.

The wrestling Apaches of Antioch won 46-8 in the "A" meet and 20-5 in the "B".

Scoring pins for Antioch's "A" squad were Erdie Cole at 65 pounds, Greg Dahlke at 80, John Oelkers at 90 and Jeff Canella at 100.

Winning decisions were Frank Heisemann at 70 pounds, Ted DeRousse (11-0) at 75, George Bessette at 105, Bobby Wiatr at 112, Rich Mitchell at 118 and Hal Fox at 125.

In exhibition matches, Mike Leaf scored a 45-second pin for Antioch. Greg Haley wrestled to a draw and three wrestlers scored decisions by shutting out their opponents. They were Mike Cheverette, Scott Masopust and Steve Lary.

The Apaches will wrestle Harvard at 4 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 13, at the Upper Grade School.

May the Christmas Season be a memorable and joyous time filled with blessings and love for all.
